Do you love working with great schools, which are focussed on delivering inclusive education for all children and young people?

Hatton and Little Heath Special Schools, based in the London Borough of Redbridge, are now establishing dedicated school-focused Speech and Language therapy services and seeking exceptional speech and language therapists to join us.

As part of the therapy support service in the schools, you will work alongside specialist teachers, Learning Support Assistants, parents, carers and external professionals. You will work in a team to establish innovative, sustainable, and consistent service to our children and young people.

The well-supported role will include opportunities to conduct direct and indirect therapy and train those who work and/or live with children and young people with special and additional needs. You will have experience in carrying out effective, evidence based interventions with children and young people with a range of complex needs including Autism; Developmental Language Disorders; Down's syndrome and Selective Mutism.

We will provide you with:

- Excellent CPD opportunities and career progression

- A supportive team.
- Regular clinical supervision.
- HCPC and RCSLT fees paid.
- A competitive salary and pension

If you would like to have an informal discussion, or visit the schools, you can contact:
